

Holy Trinity

You have invited us from everywhere, in Holy Cross, to live a Forum adventure, with You.
Remain forever,
at the heart of our search for communion, that TOGETHER, we may be signs of hope in our world.

Give us hearts that are receptive, open to the challenges of our time, attentive to the surprises of Your Spirit, and ready to risk,
in the footsteps of Basile Moreau, to be about the work of resurrection in the way of Your Son.

You from whom we receive life, breath and being, keep us always, in You, docile and hopeful, so to live, evermore with one heart and one passion, in your service.

Amen.
